Beethoven Club Plans For Annual State Convention

During the past week members of the Beethoven club, of which Mrs. J. F. Hill is president, have been busy planning for the third annual convention of the Tennessee Federation of Music clubs, which will be held here on May 9-10-11, the Nineteenth Century club, through the courtesy of its members, being the headquarters for the meetings.

The club president, Mrs. Hill, has appointed efficient chairmen who have selected their own committees. Mrs. E. B. Douglas has been appointed general chairman of the convention, having as subcommittees those on homes, flowers and automobiles. The chairmen of committees have been appointed as follows:

Hospitality and Entertainment—Mrs. E. B. Douglas, general chairman, with Misses. Napoleon Hill, George Barrow, J. P. Hinton, James M. McCormack, M. T. Roush, A. B. Knipmeyer, David L. Griffith, William M. Meyer, M. C. Smith, N. W. Spears, R. A. Street, W. H. Barker, W. D. Wilkerson, A. B. Wohlgenuth, W. C. Early, J. F. Pritchard, Benjamin S. Parker, G. F. Pritchard, M. G. Buckingham and Louis A. Thornton.

Flowers—Mrs. J. Rowlett Paine, chairman. Homes—Mrs. M. G. Buckingham, chairman. Mrs. W. R. Satterfield and Miss Alice Maxwell.

Automobiles—Mrs. John O. Platt, chairman; Mrs. H. H. Schutt and Mrs. W. R. Satterfield.

Arrangement—Mrs. David L. Griffith, chairman; Mrs. R. A. Street, Mrs. E. A. Angier and Miss Sophia Alexander.

Program—Miss Elizabeth Mosby, state chairman; Mrs. Thomas W. Sherron, Miss Belle Wade, Miss Sallie Leake and Miss Florence Taylor.

Badge—Mrs. M. T. Roush, chairman; Mrs. A. Stubbs and Mrs. R. D. Owens.

Credentials—Mrs. E. W. Taylor, treasurer of the Beethoven club, and Mrs. W. J. Hon, treasurer of the State federation.

Publicity and Press—Mrs. W. J. Hon, chairman; Mrs. E. A. Angier and Miss Margaret B. Forbes.

Among the features of entertainment planned by the club in honor of the visitors, the first will be a sacred concert on Sunday evening, May 9, at the Idlewild Presbyterian church. On Monday the Beethoven club will compliment the visiting delegates with an elaborate luncheon which will be in the nature of a banquet with toasts, Mrs. James M. McCormack, a former president of the club, presiding as toastmistress.

On Monday afternoon the members of the Nineteenth Century club will entertain the delegates with a tea and musicale.

On Tuesday afternoon the visitors will be complimented by members of the Salon circle with an automobile ride and later will enjoy tea at the Memphis Country club.

Beautiful musical numbers by local artists will be features of each session and with the many brilliant talks and papers the program arranged by Miss Mosby promises to be one of the very best in the history of the federation.

Mrs. John L. Meek, of Chattanooga, as president, will preside, and the meetings will be attended by about 20 or more visitors, in addition to the local delegates.

Entertainments

MISS LEATHERMAN HOSTESS AT LOVELY MAY DAY DINNER

Miss Anne Leatherman, whose piquant beauty and charm have made her an unusually popular member of the Beethoven club, will be the hostess at a lovely May day dinner on Saturday evening at the Country club, where guests will enjoy her hospitality. The delightful affair is planned in special compliment to two other debutantes, Misses Gertrude Russell and Blanche Cutler, who are among the most charming girls who grace social circles.

For the evening the hostess will wear a lovely frock of peach-colored orpandy with net frills, and the honor guests will also be beautifully gowned. Miss Russell wearing white georgette crepe and lace, and Miss Cutler soft white satin embroidered in pearls and both wearing corsage bouquets of spring blossoms.

The table where the guests will be seated to enjoy the delicious spring menu will be beautifully adorned with a profusion of choice spring blossoms in pastel shades, arranged in May baskets, and an artistic and unique touch will be given by graceful little figures of ladies wearing hoop-skirted frocks and pokebonnets and carrying tiny silken parasols.

Hand-painted cards picturing girls in May day frocks will mark the places of the guests, who, at the conclusion of the menu will join other members of other parties in informal dancing.

YOUNG DAUGHTER HONOREE AT BOX PARTY AT ORPHEUM

Mrs. J. O. E. Beck entertained Saturday afternoon with a box party at the Orpheum theater in honor of her pretty daughter, Minnie Elizabeth.

Dainty corsage bouquets were presented to the guests.

sented the guests, among whom were Lucy and Florence Orgill, Eva Hines, Mary Newcomb, Ernestine Jarboe, Katherine Page, Elizabeth Davani, Elizabeth Barker, Collette Tenn, Edwina Moore, Alice McKnight, Ver, Arlene Orr, Louise Lavar, Eleanor Cranstow, Della Tate, Frances Burge, Mary Knipmeyer, Katherine Barkdale, Elizabeth Wilson, Mary Margaret Ransom, Frances Fisher, Louise Gardner, Sarah Hunt, Peggy Mann, Lillian May Dickinson, Elizabeth Somerville, Elizabeth Miller, Elizabeth Dickinson, Marie Schmalzried, Willie and Edith Weatherly.

Mrs. L. W. Taylor and Mrs. Beck were the chaperones for the afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. ROSE HONORED AT BEAUTIFUL DINNER DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Rose, of Knoxville, the latter formerly Miss Katherine Varnell, who are visitors in the city en route home after an extended trip, will be the guests of honor at a beautiful dinner-dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis King, on Saturday evening, at the Country club.

An unusually artistic decorative motif will be employed in the ornamentation of the elegantly appointed table, where covers for 25 will be laid. In the center of the oblong board will be a fountain of youth, its crystal waters falling into a pool banked with pink sweetpeas and golden tulips, while low baskets of lovely spring blossoms make a flowery path down the length of the board.

Mrs. King will be attractively gowned for the evening in pink tulle with touches of blue, and the charming young bride will wear one of her beautiful tulle-trousseau gowns of tulle and lace.

MISS JORDAN ENTERTAINS FOR VISITING MATRONS

Miss Elizabeth Jordan, a most attractive member of the Beethoven club, was the charming hostess at an enjoyable affair on Saturday afternoon, when she entertained a few friends informally at luncheon in honor of two young visiting matrons, who were both Knoxville girls, Mrs. Robert Bogardus Snowden, formerly Miss Grace Mountcastle and Mrs. Morton Rose, formerly Miss Katherine Varnell.

Mrs. Rose, whose marriage occurred very recently, has been visiting Mrs. Snowden in her home in Arkansas and both are guests for the week-end of Mrs. Brinkley Snowden.
